

I very much value the individualized high-touch service I get from my ISP, and in fact rely on for my small business. This ISP purchases its DSL connections from a large phone company, and this proposal would probably end that arrangement. This in turn would hamper my ability to easily conduct my business in the way I see fit. Please deny this petition.